Big Guys

"Hey want to go skateboarding dude?" I say to my best friend Chet. I love going skateboarding with my friends. I knock on Chet's door. Boom!! Boom!!!!! Chet comes out with his skateboard. The skate park is 3 blocks away from Chet's house. When we get there, I go straight to the half pipe. I go to the top and skate down. It is 20 feet down and up. Chet goes to the 5 foot jump. He flies over the fence, in the air and into the river!!!! I shouted to Chet and he said "you should try doing it!. I'm doing it again. I beat Chet to the 5 foot jump. I went up and down and flew over the fence just like Chet had! Splash!!!! I landed in the middle of the river. It was so fun just like Chet said. I was soaked in water. We did that jump for one hour. By the time we came home it was 7:30 and my mom said "why didn't you bring your phone?" I knew that I was in trouble because mom had said for me to bring my phone whenever I went somewhere without her. So I had dinner which was pork chops. They were cold because I had come home late. After that, I made myself an ice cream sundae with fudge and wiped cream and marshmallows. After that, it was bed time. The next morning, I had toast and eggs for breakfast. It was really good. This time, I got my phone and went out to get Chet. Chet was home and we went to the 5 foot jump. I zoomed over the fence and splashed into the nice cool water. It felt great in the hot summer sun. I saw some boys across the river. I said "what's up guys?" They looked up and said "swim over and skate with us!!" Suddenly, my phone started buzzing rapidly. I answered the call. It was mom. She said it was time to get home in time for lunch. When I got home, I got lunch and went over and turned the TV to cartoon network and Teen Titans Go was on. Teen Titans Go is a funny show and it is also sometimes scary. It was a movie and it was 2 hours long. After the movie was done, I had dinner which was mac and cheese and it was great. After that, it was my bedtime and I had good dreams.

The end.
