The Hamilton-Wenham Public Library is a member of a Merrimack Valley Library Consortium (MVLC), a group of over 35 public libraries serving the Greater Merrimack Valley region of Massachusetts. From home, school, or the library, you can connect to the MVLC online catalog to view your borrowing record, make requests for books, research materials and access a select group of library-related and general internet resources.

When accessing your record or placing requests, you will be asked for your ID and password. Your ID is your library card number (without any spaces) and your password is the last four digits of your telephone number. The Hamilton-Wenham Public Library issues an initial library card free of charge to any member of the two towns. Your card may be used at any library within Massachusetts.

Children applying for cards must be accompanied by their parent or legal guardian and have proof of residency.
