

ROCKET SAVES THE DAY!

Once there was a dog named Rocket. He knew how to fetch but he never did. He daydreamed about being a superhero instead. All he ever did was lie around on the porch all day. One day while he was lying on the porch he said "That's it! I am going to be a superhero." He wanted everyone to call him for help. Rocket went to the store and bought a red and black superhero suit. When he got home he thought "Now that I am a superhero, I need to train. No more lying around for me!!!" First, Rocket tried to fly and to his surprise he flew!!! Next, Rocket ran 5 miles and when that felt good he tried 10 miles and then he ran 100 miles! Then he jumped. He asked his friend Dex to use his toy foam bow and arrow and shoot at him so he could practice for the real deal. Now he was ready. But then he saw a crowd in the distance and they were all yelling "Rocket! Rocket! Rocket!" He saw a tree higher than the sky and at the top branch he saw a cat holding on for dear life. Rocket flew up and saved the cat. He flew down and just when he was about to hit the ground he back flipped and landed on his feet. ROCKET SAVED THE DAY!!! Rocket was very happy and he got a medal from the mayor. He went home and rested. He was very proud.
