

Here They Come!

Saturday, October 29 at 2 p.m.

Local author and illustrator David Hyde Costello pays us a special Halloween visit.

Join us as David adds music and puppetry to a reading of his book Here They Come!, a delightful tale about the fun of dressing up for Halloween.

After the story, help David create and draw a hobgoblin limited only by our imaginations!

Great for all ages!
Offered to the public at no charge. No registration necessary.

Also, don't miss an interactive visit from a friendly hobgoblin!
