

Forever with A Horse

'Bring bring !' I grabbed my bag and rushed out the door. I was meeting my friend at Lakeshore Stables. It was my first day of riding lessons. "This is the day I have been waiting for!" I exclaimed as I got on my bike. It was only a 10 minute bike ride. When I got there, I raced to the barn as fast as I could. When I got to the stables, I saw horses and ponies that were cute and old. It is the best day, I thought to myself as I looked at all the animals that were glaring back at me. There were pigs, cows, horses, chickens, and sheep. After that, I went to find my trainer, Amy. When I found her on the other side of the barn, I said "Hi, I'm Anna". As she took me to pick my horse, I noticed an amazing horse that was a beautiful white color with a white mane grazing in the green grass. I looked at her in amazement because of her glimmering blue eyes. Then Amy taught me to put the saddle on her. After, we thought of a name for her. We thought of Faith. Next, I tried to get on her, but it was hard. It took a few tries. Then, Amy said "This horse was rescued. My friends said they found her in the wild." Then I got ahold of the reigns and tapped her sides. She started to trot, then gallop. Amy took a picture of me smiling with Faith. Suddenly, Faith charged towards the barn. She was so fast that I lost grip of the reigns. I slid off the saddle and landed right on my arm. I saw that Faith was running to the woods. Amy called my mom to take me to the hospital. When we got there, mom rushed me to the emergency room. I had to get a blue cast. I was sad because I could not ride any more. Well, I could in six weeks. But that is in a long time, I thought to myself. After four weeks, my cast was getting heavy. I did not think I could make it through two more weeks. When I got my cast off, it felt so good. When I got back to the stable, Amy said "We did not find Faith, I am sorry." I raced into the woods to find the missing horse, Faith. All of a sudden, I heard three footsteps that echoed in the air. I heard a faint 'neh' in the dark woods. In an instant, Faith came running out of the green woods. I was so HAPPY ! This is the BEST day EVER! Now, I am forever with Faith.
