

Bella and the Horse Show

Bella is practicing for the horse show. Cora is helping her.

When Cora is helping Bella practice, Bella falls off the horse. "Bella are you OK?" Cora asked. "I'm fine, let's keep practicing" replied Bella, but big tears fall down her face.

Cora sees the tears falling down Bella's face and says, "I won't give up on you until you feel brave." Bella felt better and was proud to have a friend like Cora.

The horse show is coming up. Bella and Cora are still practicing at the barn. Every day Cora comes to help Bella practice. Finally, Bella is ready!

They go inside to get a drink. When they came back Penny, the horse was missing. They looked in the woods, and in the backyard, and the whole town, but Penny was nowhere to be found...

But, when they got back to the barn, there was Penny in the paddock! Bella is relieved that Penny is home safely. Bella tries to put Penny on the trailer, but Penny will not budge!

"Penny, why won't you go on the trailer?" asks Bella. Penny whinnies. Cora tries to help too. Penny still won't budge. Bella says "Penny, are you nervous to go to the horse show?" Penny whinnies again. Bella and Cora work together to try to get Penny on the trailer.

Bella tells Penny "I was scared my first time galloping with you, but having a friend made me feel brave. And now you have a friend by your side to make you feel brave." Bella hugged Penny, and then Penny got on the trailer.

When they got to the horse show, Penny got out of the trailer. She whinnied at first, but she and Bella rode together and won first place! The End.

Bella and the Horse Show

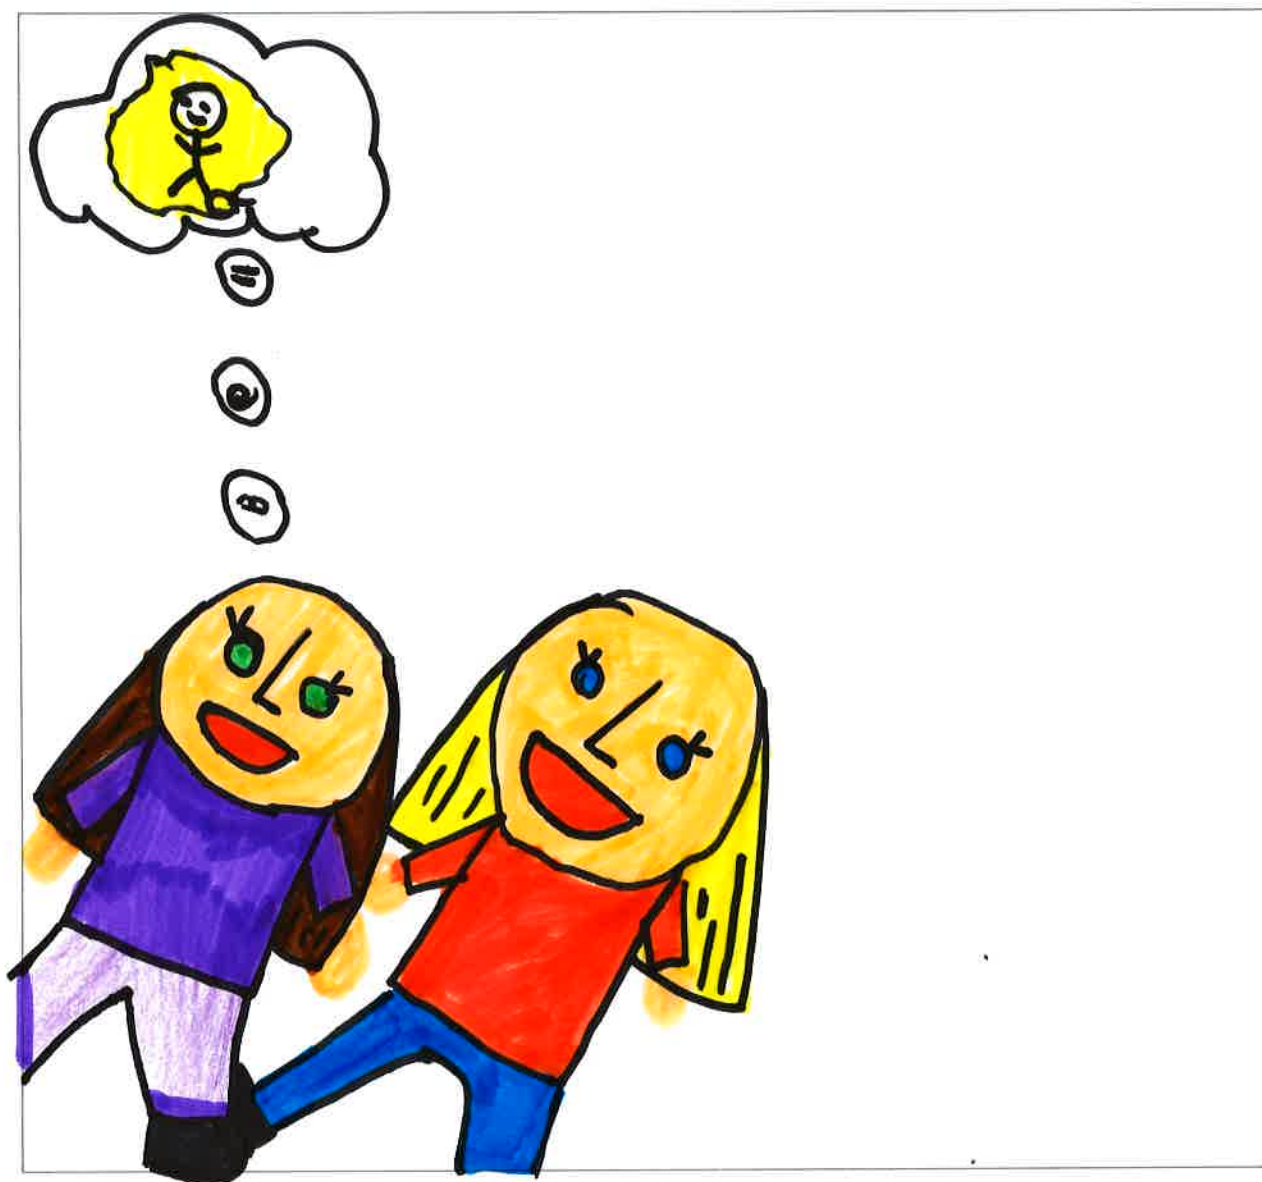

Bella is practicing for the horse show. Cora is helping her.

When Cora is helping Bella practice, Bella falls off the horse. “Bella are you OK? Cora asked. “I’m fine, let’s keep practicing” replied Bella, but big tears fall down her face.

Cora sees the tears falling down Bella's face and says, "I won't give up on you until you feel brave." Bella felt better and was proud to have a friend like Cora.

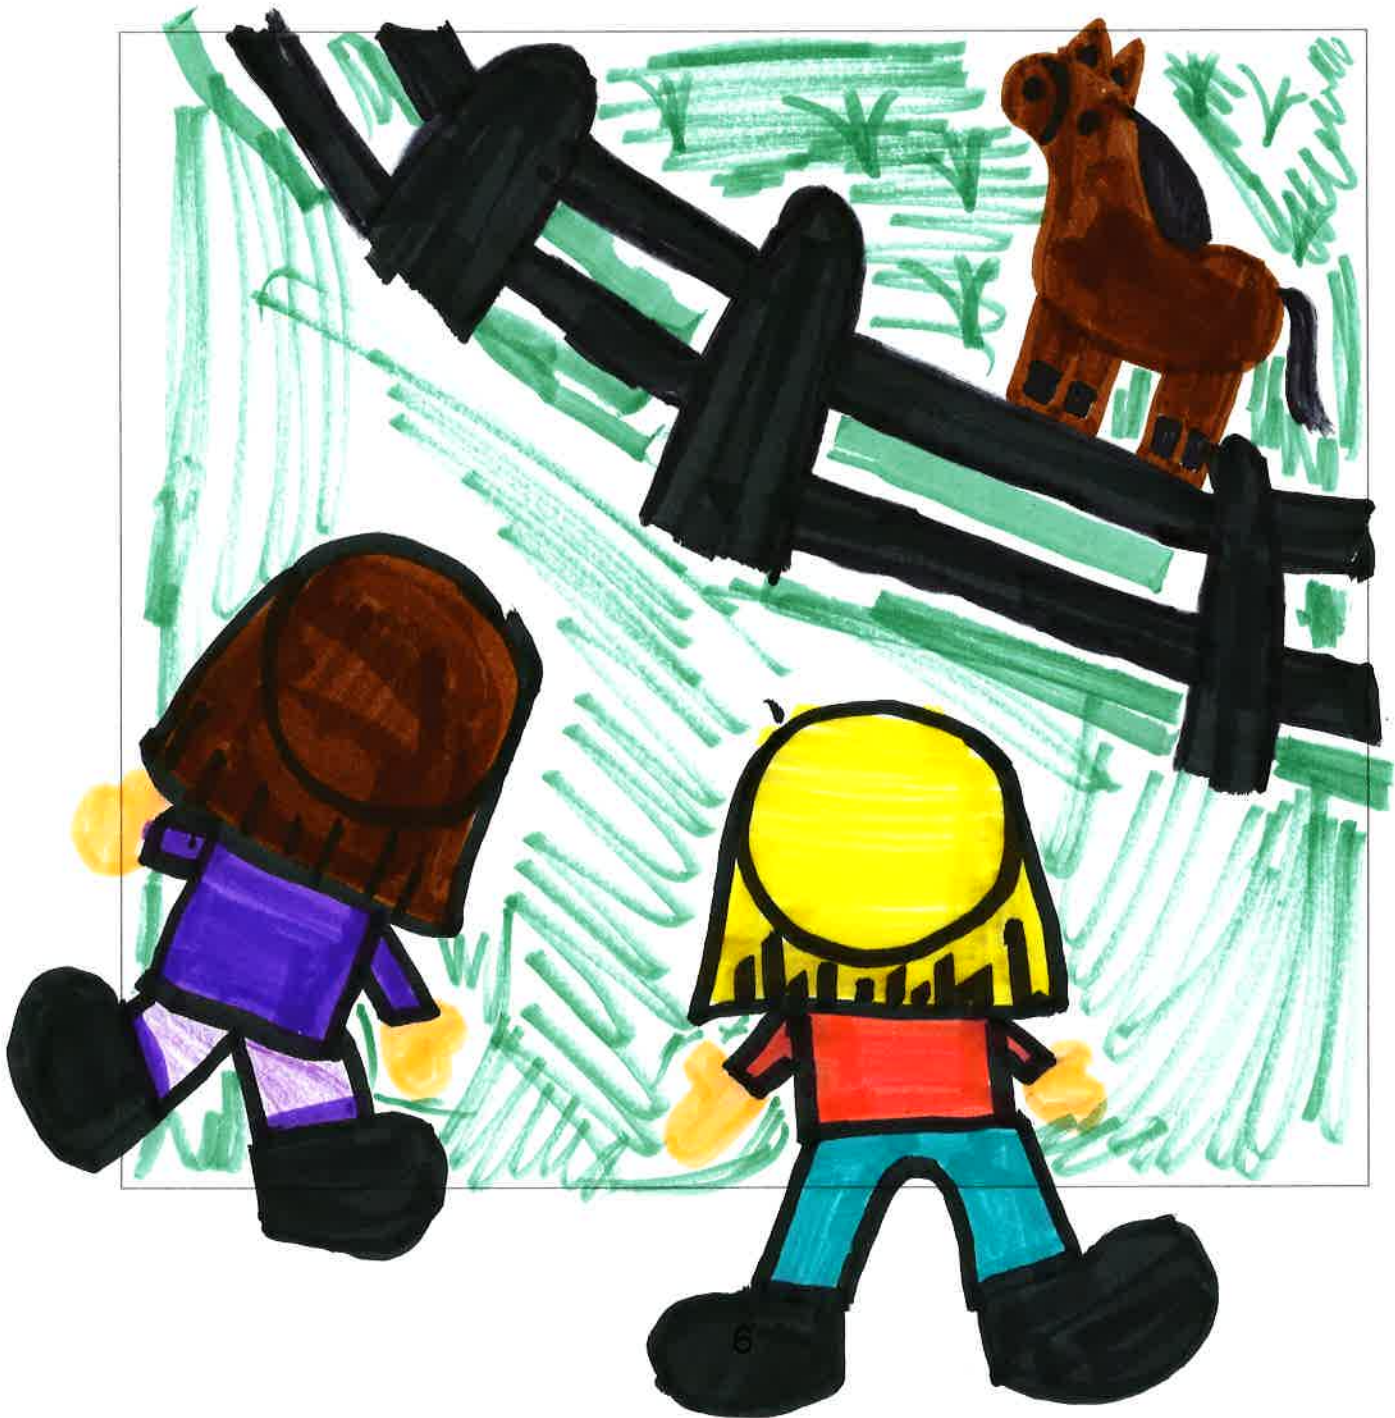

The horse show is coming up. Bella and Cora are still practicing at the barn. Every day Cora comes to help Bella practice. Finally, Bella is ready!

They go inside to get a drink. When they came back Penny, the horse was missing. They looked in the woods, and in the backyard, and the whole town, but Penny was nowhere to be found...

But, when they got back to the barn, there was Penny in the paddock! Bella is relieved that Penny is home safely. Bella tries to put Penny on the trailer, but Penny will not budge!

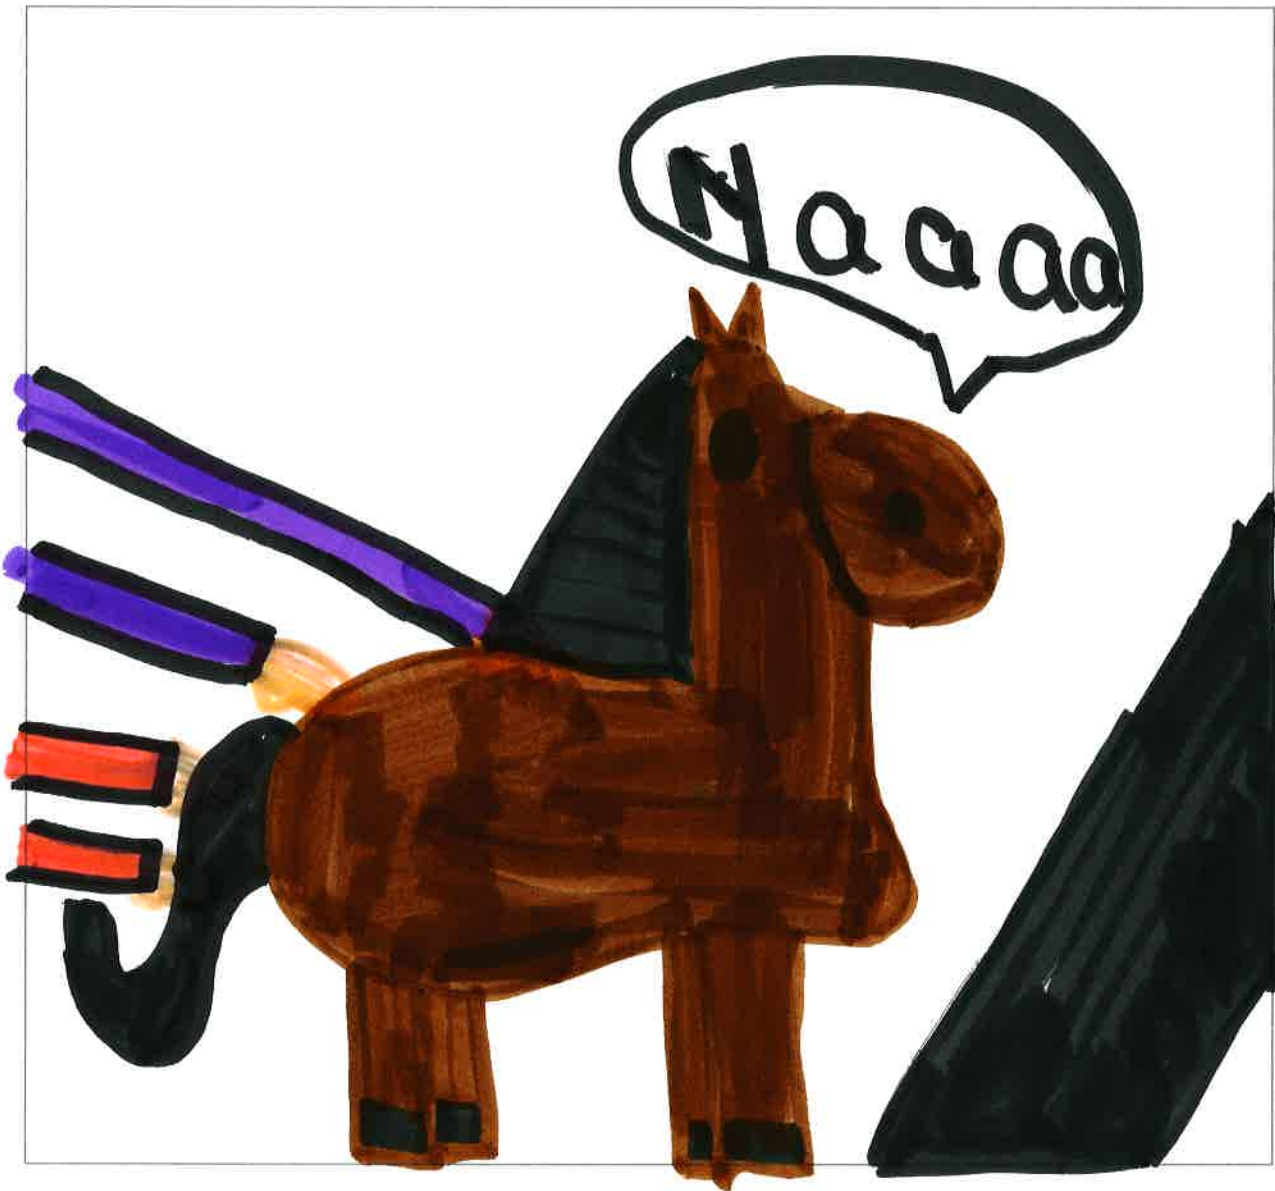

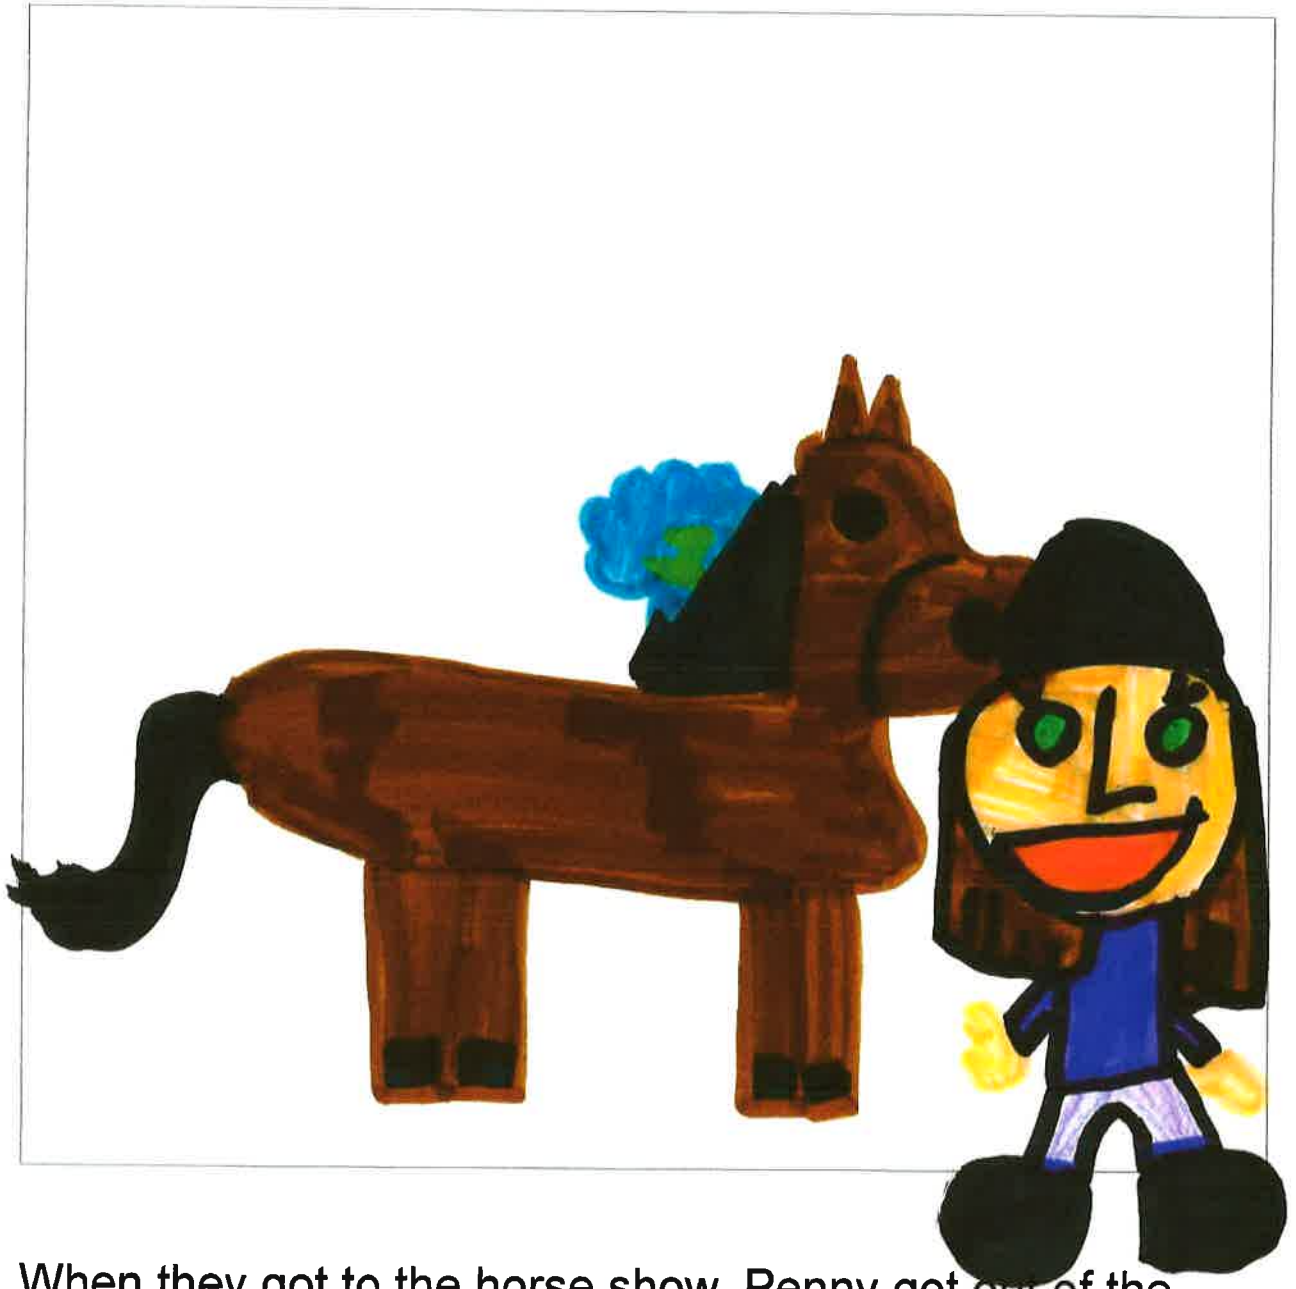

“Penny, why won’t you go on the trailer?” asks Bella.

Penny whinnies. Cora tries to help too. Penny still won’t budge. Bella says “Penny, are you nervous to go to the horse show?” Penny whinnies again. Bella and Cora work together to try to get Penny on the trailer.

Bella tells Penny “I was scared my first time galloping with you, but having a friend made me feel brave. And now you have a friend by your side to make you feel brave.” Bella hugged Penny, and then Penny got on the trailer.

When they got to the horse show, Penny got out of the trailer. She whinnied at first, but she and Bella rode together and won first place! The End.