

Kya and Bennie's Titanic Adventure

Chapter 1: Where's Bennie?

Kya and Bennie were whisked into the sky and landed with a THUD! They had no idea where they were. Kya and Bennie were sister and brother and they went on a lot of adventures back in time. Kya thought they had landed in the seven seas, but Bennie thought they had landed in the Mayflower. Then they saw the words R.M.S Titanic printed on the side of the ship. "Have you heard the story of the Titanic?" Kya asked. "Yes I have," replied Bennie. "I've heard that it sank to the bottom of the ocean. Maybe we should tell them to go another way," asked Bennie. "NO! That would ruin history!" Kya yelled. "Okay, okay, you don't have to be so harsh!" Bennie said. All of a sudden Kya turned around and there was no sign of Bennie. "Bennie!" Kya yelled. There was no answer. Kya's heart beat fast. Thoughts raced through her head: "Where is Bennie? What if someone took him?" So she started looking for him. She checked the grand staircase, the first-class lounge, the second-class lounge, she even checked the Turkish bath, and finally she checked the third-class lounge, and there he was talking to a man that looked like, well, a stranger. She raced over to Bennie and yanked him away from the man. "We don't talk to strangers like that!" yelled Kya. Bennie agreed.

Chapter 2: Iceberg!

Kya and Bennie found an empty cabin in the second-class. When it was time for dinner they went to the second-class diner. They had a satisfying dinner and went to bed. Meanwhile, the radio operator saw an iceberg up ahead and yelled, "Iceberg!" The captain charged into the room and asked, "Should I go around it or not?" "I think you should go around it," the radio-operator said. The captain tried to go around it, but he was too late. He sailed right into it and the iceberg scraped up the side of the ship, and water started spilling into the bulkheads.

Chapter 3: Women and Children First

The bottom of the ship started to sink. They set off fireworks to alert the people on this ship. The third-class people did not have a good chance of getting on life boats because they were on the bottom level and that's where it was sinking. They had to put women and children on the lifeboats first, but the boys had to stay on the ship because the women were most important to help the children stay alive, especially the babies because the men can't feed babies. Kya and Bennie raced upstairs to the top deck. They wanted to find the place where they landed so they could get back to their house where they came from. One man lifted Kya into a life boat and it started to lower down into the ocean, but then another child needed to get in the lifeboat, so it got pulled back up and Bennie lifted Kya out of the lifeboat. They went to find the spot they landed in. The Titanic started tipping downward and Kya and Bennie almost reached the spot when the boat went straight up, they touched the spot with their hands and got transported back to their house.
