The Life Of A Busy Super Hero

My name is Hanna Madison. My secret identity is that I am a superhero. When I am a superhero my name is Orchid. This is my outfit: a purple jump suit, a watch, a dark purple skirt, a truth necklace, a diamond belt, gold truth hand cuffs, super hearing earrings, a light blue cape, and magenta shoes. These are the stories of my latest missions.

One day after school I was on a super secret mission. Facing the latest villain yet, the Raven. The Raven is as strong as 100 oxen and has sharp claws and teeth and was charging at me like a bull, but since I am small I ducked and escaped, so the Raven missed and I was safe.

Later that day I was called again to fight Sam Spider, also a new villain. Sam Spider was spinning a web in the city knowing that I was coming to the city. He planned for it to trap me but I knew better than to fly into one of those silly webs. Instead I ripped them all off. But the one thing that I did not know is that Sam Spider was hiding in a web but when I saw him in the web I didn't tear that one down.

Later that week I was on my couch relaxing, when I was called to fight Wall Breaker. He is an old villain that is always stealing from the mall. Since I have battled him many times and I know how to defeat him, that mission was pretty easy.
