

Pippi Doodle and Her Friend

There was a dog named Pippi. She lived with her people family and was very happy. She liked to eat snacks from the children in the house. Pippi had a best friend who lived next door named Smudge. They liked to run and play chase. Sometimes they snuggled and slept when they got tired of running. They were best friends.

