The Princess is Alone.

Princess Flower is lonely. She is sitting on her stool feeling sad.

It is rainy out. Her castle is pink and purple and it has a yellow door.

A wet and cold prince with 9 jewels steps in the yellow door.

Princess Flower says I have 1 penny. I cannot buy anything. Can you help me?

I may tell you where to go to get food. I will give you money or if you are trying to get something else I will give you money to get something else too. Said the prince still wet and cold.

Yes tell me where to go. Said the princess.

Go straight on then turn right on Apple Street. Then go straight on for 80 minutes. The prince said.

The princess said ok I will. I shall go now. Thank you sir. She goes to her car and she drove straight on. She turned left on Apple Street but the prince told her to go right. It is only 3 minutes before she notices that she is lost. She is scared.

The princess gets out of her car to see if she knows where she is. She sees black bushes and bright green trees and blood red roses. Princess Flower doesn't recognise anything nearby.

She hears a gggggggggrrrrrrrrr.

She sees a bear! The bear has bloody claws. His teeth are little and good to bite with. He is ginormous.

Princess Flower runs and gets in her car. The bear comes after her car. Just then the back of her car turns into a race car and the rest of the car turns into one too. The princess zooms away and the bear can't keep up.

Just then a police car comes along and the police officer pulls her over.

You speeded. Go home right now. Said the police officer.

I don't know how to get home. I got lost here and chased down by a bear. Please help me home. Will you please? Said the princess.

Ok I will. I can. Where is your house?

It is addressed 978 Cowbin street. Said the princess and they drove home together happily. When they got to the castle she said thank you to her new friend the police officer and went inside. It was sunny out and for heavens sakes the prince was still there. Princess Flower wasn't alone anymore.

The End.
