

Little White Rabbit

Rin is a little white rabbit with pink eyes, fluffy fur and a cotton tail. He lives with his mother, brother and sister in the forest. Rin's mother often says that Rin has good eyes because he always discovers things that his mom does not even notice. He sees the moon in the daylight when the sun is not very strong. He knows where to find the biggest puddle after the rain. In the morning, he watches the clouds changing into different shapes and sizes. At night, he stares at the sparkly stars and pretends someone is playing faraway flash game with him. Rin enjoys being able to have fun by himself.

There are so many things to do in the woods. And Rin's most favorite thing to do is to hop around and play with his imagination. On one spring day, when the beautiful flowers were blooming, he skipped through the meadow to explore. He wondered what it would be like to be green. On one summer day, when the bright sun is warm, he hopped on a rock in the field and wondered what it would be like to be still for a long time. On one autumn day, when the colorful leaves were falling, he jumped by a tree and stopped to look up. He wondered what it would be like to be tall. When the weather started to get cold, Rin and his family stayed in their cozy burrow for most of the season. One night before Rin settled down to sleep, he wondered what it would be like to be a snowflake dancing in the air. And he did just that in his dream that night.
