

Eagles Nest

Once upon a time, there was an eagle named Thomas. Thomas was a mail eagle. Mail Eagle's deliver mail to eagle's around the world. Being a mail Eagle is hard, because they have to fly miles to deliver mail, and as soon as they come back, they have to deliver something else. Thomas lived in the country of Eagle land. Eagle land was full of jobs. Thomas decided that he should find a new job. The next day, he started doing a job for a Farmer Eagle. He was told that he has to go in a human's garden and take seeds. Thomas knew about humans, they take eagles as pets, but he went anyway. He found a garden and he was about to take a seed, when someone saw him. When he did, Thomas got scared and flew back. His boss was angry at him when he found out he had no seeds. "You're fired!" his boss yelled. So, Thomas went to go find an easier job. His next job was a Chef Eagle at the Huckleberry restaurant with ★★★★★. His first test was to make a simple pea soup. He looked in the recipe bin and one card which happens to be the one to make pea soup, fell in some boiling water. Thomas did not notice, so he kept looking. He found green bean soup, but he thought there must be a typo, because it was the last recipe in the bin. He replaced the green beans with peas. The soup was served, and everybody loved it. There was a food critic there, and he loved the soup so much, he asked Thomas to make him some spaghetti. He made the spaghetti, but when the food critic tasted it, he spat out...the recipe for pea soup. You can expect why, that same day ★★★★★ turned into ★★★★★. Thomas caught the look in his boss's face, he realized those people needed some time alone. Thomas didn't think he would be able to ever get a job. Luckily, Thomas was able to find a job for a Mail Eagle, where he could deliver mail in Eagle land only. Thomas was really happy with his new job, and he kept on being a mail eagle for a long time. THE END.
