

No Card? No Problem!

Are you a Hamilton or Wenham resident who does not have a card or whose card is no longer in our system? Since we are currently closed to the public, we are offering to sign up Hamilton or Wenham patrons for a library card via email. This will allow you to use our many online resources.

Your temporary card will expire in three months. Once we are open, you can come to the library with proof of residence to get a physical library card. We will also extend your card's expiration date at that time.

To sign up for a card, email info@hwlibrary.org. Be sure to include your

We will email you back with your library card number within 24 hours during the week, longer on weekends.

This is only for Hamilton and Wenham residents. If you live in another town, please contact your local library, or sign up for a Boston Public Library card (available to all residents of Massachusetts!) at <https://www.bpl.org/ecard>.
