

The poster features a white background with a thick border of colorful LEGO bricks in various shapes and sizes, including red, blue, yellow, green, and purple. In the center, there is a black rounded rectangle containing the text 'LEGO BUILD' in white. Below this, a purple tilted rectangle contains the schedule information. Further down, a green rectangle contains the tagline, and two colored rectangles (blue and orange) contain details about the target audience and registration. At the bottom, a pink rectangle contains the library's name and logo.
