

PATRIOTIC PEEPS DIORAMA CONTEST

DIORAMA DROP-OFF: APRIL 10-18

PUBLIC VOTING: APRIL 21 - MAY 9

Create a patriotic PEEPS scene in celebration of the Revolutionary Library Crawl and the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence!

A diorama is a miniature model with three-dimensional figures. Create a diorama that depicts a scene from the past 250 years of America. You are not limited to the Revolution, so feel free to get creative with exploring highlights from US history.

GUIDELINES

- One entry per person or team.
- Entries must be submitted with entry form.
- All characters should be portrayed by PEEPS.
- Dioramas must be made in a standard shoe box, maximum dimensions 14"x10".
- All entries must be family-friendly, in good taste, and of solid construction.
- Please give your diorama a title that describes the scene portrayed.
- Dioramas must be dropped off at the Circulation Desk April 10–April 18. Late entries will not be accepted.
- Dioramas must be picked up by May 15. Projects left after this date will be disposed.

PEEPS will be on display and open for voting during the Revolutionary Library Crawl, April 21 – May 9. One winner from each entry category will be selected to receive a prize.

Please note that the Library will make reasonable effort to keep your diorama safe, but is not responsible for any damage to your submission, or return of its components. By entering, you give HWPL permission to display, photograph, film, and share your diorama in social media posts and advertising.
